

Celebrate Spring at the Library

247-5556

247-5556

Libraries Transform

This nationally observed annual event is sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA) and libraries across the country. There will be FREE T-shirts, tote bags and copies of "2nd Honeymoon" by James Patterson.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK
APRIL 9 - 15, 2017

SCHOOL Age Reading Club

NEW

Thursdays at 4 p.m. at the Library
FREE and open to 1st - 4th graders

Great for kids who need help with reading comprehension or who just like a good story! Each week there will be a chapter book story, discussion, journal entry, craft or activity.

Children's Book Week

May 1 - 7

Fairchild Families, come to the Library and be a part of the bookmark design contest.

MONSTER BASH

NEW

(Part of Children's Book Week)

Tuesday, May 2 at 4:30 p.m.

FREE Library event for families with children pre-K through 3rd grade. Join us for light snacks, reading and crafts.

